President's Report

We need to reach out to the community. If there is someone who is interested, the person will need to contact the President. Our seat on the Baltimore City Mayor's Commission on Disabilities is still open. The President asked the Board if they know someone who is interested, please contact the President. We should do an email blast about it.

The Maryland Association of the Deaf had a conference and held an election at the Frederick Community College on August 12, 2023.
